Re: Notice of violations, Parkstone Property Owners' Association, Inc.

Dear Ling and Fenglin:

This is to notify you of violations of the dedicatory instruments of the Parkstone Property Owners' Association, Inc. involving parking and exterior lighting.

One of the primary roles of the Association is to help ensure that all residents abide by the deed restrictions in the community. We are sending this letter in hopes that you will cure these violations in a timely manner and bring your lot into compliance. You may cure this violation and avoid fines or further enforcement action by, no later than March 15th, 2020:

- 1) permanently ensuring that all resident and guest parking at your home is performed in accordance with the restrictions, including that no car may be parked on the street for a duration of more than 12 hours, and traffic signs must be obeyed. Relevant sections of the community rules are attached to this letter for reference.
- 2) removing the unauthorized exterior lighting in the back yard.

Exterior lights have been installed recently and are in use (string lights and single lights including one with a red hue), but were not submitted for approval as required by the restrictions, and are excessively bright and unduly burdensome for the surrounding neighbors. The declaration requires all improvements, expressly including exterior lighting fixtures and equipment, (see §§1.12 and 2.16) to be approved prior to installation. It further prohibits (§ 2.8) uses of the property that are detrimental to others' use of the property or that constitute a nuisance. The lights are very bright and are typically left on all night. If you would like to submit plans for consideration for alternate exterior lighting you are welcome to do so.

Failure to cure by the deadlines noted above may result in fines and/or further enforcement action. Fines may be levied in accordance with the association's fine schedule, also attached for reference. In short, initial fine(s) would be $25/violation, with increasing fines should the violation continue.

State Law Notice: If you are currently serving on active military duty, you may be entitled to special rights of relief related to this enforcement action under federal law, including the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. You may request a hearing before the Association's board of directors to discuss and verify facts related to this violation in an attempt to resolve this matter. Any such request must be submitted in writing to our office within 30 days of the date of this letter. If you do not cure the violation by the deadline noted above, attorneys' fees and other enforcement costs may be assessed to your account in accordance with state law.

On behalf of the association we thank you in advance for your assistance in resolving this matter.

Sincerely,

Alice English, Goodwin Management, managing agent

Portions of restrictions related to parking:

Street parking time limitation. No vehicle (including motorcycles and scooters) may be parked or left on any portion of the Property¹ for longer than 12 hours at a time. In other words there is a 12-hour time limit for any vehicle to be parked on a street anywhere on the Property; moving a car to a different portion of the street within the property does not re-start the 12-hour clock.

Traffic signs. Residents must respect all street traffic signs in the neighborhood (for example all vehicles must fully stop at stop signs and abide by any posted speed limit).

No parking areas. No parking is allowed within 20 feet of a street corner, within 15 feet of a fire hydrant, or within 30 feet of a stop or yield sign. Vehicles parked on the street must be parked no further than 18" from the curb.

Fine schedule

(Per the fine policy, the Board may vary from this schedule on a case-by-case basis (i.e., set fines higher or lower than indicated below), so long as that decision is based upon the facts surrounding that particular violation) :

- A. 209 Violation Notice: $25.00 fine*
If the violation remains uncured/re-occurs after the initial fine(s):

- B. Subsequent Violation Notices: $50.00 fine*;
 $100.00 fine*;
 $125.00 fine*;
 (Increases $25.00 for each additional notice).

*Per violation. In the case of a parking violation, each vehicle and each instance of violation after the deadline to cure is a separate violation. In the case of a lighting violation, each day the unapproved lighting remains past the deadline to cure is a separate violation.

¹ This 12-hour limitation does not apply to vehicles parked or left in a driveway or garage. The "Property" per the Declaration means all property in the Parkstone neighborhood – including streets and other common areas.

Re: Notice of additional violations, Parkstone Property Owners' Association, Inc. 2105 Real Catorce

Dear Ling and Fenglin:

This is in follow up to our prior notice of March 11, 2020 related to violations of the dedicatory instruments of the Parkstone Property Owners' Association, Inc. involving parking and exterior lighting.

In that letter you were provided opportunity to address ongoing violations and to avoid fines and further enforcement action by, no later than March 15th, 2020:

- 1) permanently ensuring that all resident and guest parking at your home is performed in accordance with the restrictions, including that no car may be parked on the street for a duration of more than 12 hours, and traffic signs must be obeyed. Relevant sections of the community rules are attached to this letter for reference.
- 2) removing the unauthorized exterior lighting in the back yard.

Since March 15th however there have been seven instances ofd parking violations for longer than the 12-hour maximum time period. Fines of $25/violation have been assessed, for a total of $175. Should further violations continue and additional notifications be required, fines will increase to $50 per violation, with continued increases per the attached schedule.

On behalf of the association we thank you in advance for your assistance in resolving this matter.

Sincerely,

Alice English, Goodwin Management, managing agent

Re: Notice of additional violations, Parkstone Property Owners' Association, Inc. 2105 Real Catorce

Dear Ling and Fenglin:

This is in follow up to our prior notices of March 11 and March 18, 2020 related to violations of the dedicatory instruments of the Parkstone Property Owners' Association, Inc. involving parking and exterior lighting.

In the March 11th letter you were provided opportunity to address ongoing violations and to avoid fines and further enforcement action by, no later than March 15th, 2020:

- 1) permanently ensuring that all resident and guest parking at your home is performed in accordance with the restrictions, including that no car may be parked on the street for a duration of more than 12 hours, and traffic signs must be obeyed. Relevant sections of the community rules are attached to this letter for reference.
- 2) removing the unauthorized exterior lighting in the back yard.

Since March 15th however there have been seven instances of parking violations for longer than the 12-hour maximum time period. You were notified in the March 18th letter of ongoing parking violations. Unfortunately both parking and lighting violations continue. Fines of $50/violation have been assessed for 43 parking violations ($2,150), and $25/violation have been assessed for five lighting violations ($125), for a total of $2,275. Should further violations continue and additional notifications be required, fines will increase per the attached schedule.

On behalf of the association we thank you in advance for your assistance in resolving this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Ling and Fenglin:

This is in follow up to our prior notices related to violations of the dedicatory instruments of the Parkstone Property Owners' Association, Inc. involving parking and exterior lighting.

In the most recent prior letter, March 27, 2020, you were informed of ongoing violations and notified that should they not be remedied fines would continue to accrue. The violations in question again could be cured by:

- 1) permanently ensuring that all resident and guest parking at your home is performed in accordance with the restrictions, including that no car may be parked on the street for a duration of more than 12 hours, and traffic signs must be obeyed. Relevant sections of the community rules are attached to this letter for reference.
- 2) removing the unauthorized exterior lighting in the back yard.

There have been 30 further parking violations noted. Per the fining schedule, fines of $100/violation are now levied, for a total of $3,000 in fines levied for these 30 violations. Should further violations continue and additional notifications be required, fines will increase per the attached schedule.

On behalf of the association we thank you in advance for your assistance in resolving this matter.

Sincerely,

Alice English, Goodwin Management, managing agent

Dear Ling and Fenglin:

Relevant sections of the community rules are attached to this letter for reference.
- 2) removing the unauthorized exterior lighting in the back yard.

There have been 44 further parking violations noted. Per the fining schedule, fines of $150/violation are now levied, for a total of $6,600 in fines levied for these 44 violations. The lighting has not been removed since our April 17th follow-up notification regarding lighting; daily fines of $100 for 13 days (totaling $1,300) since the last letter have been assessed. Daily fines will continue to accrue until the lighting is removed. It is not a matter of turning the lights off at an earlier time; as previously noted, the lights are too bright and are unduly burdensome to neighbors trying to sleep and trying to enjoy their own yards. Should further violations continue and additional notifications be required, fines will increase per the attached schedule.

Part of living in a deed-restricted community is the legal obligation to abide by the rules of the community. The board realizes that in a community of this size it is not realistic that all owners and residents will agree with the rules, but the rules are in place and all owners have a legal obligation to honor them. The Parkstone deed restrictions from the inception contemplated a community with limited street parking, a 12-hour parking limit. This is important for aesthetics, safety, and emergency responder access, but perhaps most importantly it is a rule that all owners by virtue of their purchase agreed to abide by. For every owner who dislikes the parking rule, there is one or more owners who expect the parking rule to be adhered to and enforced; neighbors have a right to expect the restrictions to be honored.

On behalf of the association we thank you in advance for your assistance in resolving these matters.

Sincerely,

Alice English, Goodwin Management, managing agent

Re: Notice of additional violations, Parkstone Property Owners' Association, Inc. 2105 Real Catorce

Dear Ling and Fenglin:

This is in follow up to your previous message to me dated June 1, 2020. Your message was in response to a courtesy letter sent to you on May 29, 2020 regarding your tenant and their members parking along other owners' property. The courtesy letter sent did not institute any fines.

This letter is also a follow up to our prior notices related to violations of the dedicatory instruments of the Parkstone Property Owners' Association, Inc. involving parking. As you requested in your previous message on June 1, 2020, details of these new parking violations are included. We have the same information for all the prior violation notices and will continue collecting this information to support future violation notices. If you have further questions on the prior violations I would be happy to discuss and provide that information. Prior letters informed you of ongoing violations and notified that should they not be remedied fines would continue to accrue. The violations in question again could be cured by:

permanently ensuring that all resident and guest parking at your home is performed in accordance with the restrictions, including that no car may be parked on the street for a duration of more than 12 hours, and traffic signs must be obeyed.
